Reuben Ray Quincer

Funeral services for Reuben Ray Quincer, 66, were held at Utter McKinley mortuary, Los Angeles, Calif., on Tuesday, June 20, 1961, with the Reverend Dudley Girod, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church officiating.

Mr. Quincer died at Daniel Freeman hospital where he had been a patient a week and a day receiving treatment for a heart attack suffered at his home June 8th. Although not in best of health he had been planning his annual visit to Groton, and his death came as a great shock to his family and friends. He was born on a farm west of Groton, April 4, 1895. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Quincer moved to Groton in 1902 where Reuben grew to manhood. He was confirmed in the Lutheran faith in early boyhood. He attended Groton high school, later taking a business course at Grand Island, Neb. He was a veteran of the first world war, taking his training at Atlanta, Ga.

On August 19th, 1922, he was married to Ada Bell Mallett of Groton and the couple moved to Los Angeles, Calif., where they have made their home since with short intervals spent in South Dakota.

Two children were born to the Quincer's, Raymond Lee Quincer of Los Angeles and Dorothy Jean Shary of Burbank, Calif.

At the time of his death, Reuben was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Whittier, Calif., where he was serving as a trustee of the church. He was a quiet unassuming man who lived a sincere Christian life, being especially interested in sponsoring Christian radio and evangelistic services.

Surviving besides his wife, two children and four grandchildren, is his sister, Emma Rock of Groton, and a host of friends who mourn his passing.
